American Translators Association 2025 Application for New Members

Thank you for your interest in the American Translators Association. ATA membership is open to anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting as a profession or as a scholarly pursuit. All individual applicants are first accepted as Associate or Student members before gaining eligibility for Active or Corresponding membership. You can join online at www.atanet.org/join.

ATA Membership for Individuals

Associate Membership
Open to individuals interested in the goals and objectives of ATA.
- Associate members receive the benefit of listing their services in the Language Services Directory.

Transitional Membership
Open to current Student members or new members who have recently graduated from a college or university, having been enrolled full-time in any program or part-time in a translation- or interpreting-related program, including foreign language study.
- Membership must begin within 365 days of graduation.
- Requires proof of graduation (in English).
- Membership is limited to 3 years.
- Transitional members have full rights and privileges as defined by the ATA Bylaws.

Student Membership
Open to graduate and undergraduate college or university students enrolled full-time in any program or part-time in a translation- or interpreting-related program, including foreign language study.
- Student members cannot list their services in the Language Services Directory.
- Requires proof of current student enrollment (in English).
- Membership is limited to 4 years.

2 Members in the Same Household Membership
Open to new or current members or new members who share the same address. Rights and privileges depend upon the membership category of the members.

ATA Membership for Organizations

Corporate Membership
- Membership is in the name of the corporation, not of an individual.
- Corporate members receive the benefit of listing their services in the Language Services Directory.
- Employees of Corporate members are not eligible to take the ATA certification examination unless they are also individual members.

Institutional Membership
- Membership is in the name of the institution, not of an individual.
- Institutional members cannot list their services in the Language Services Directory.
- Employees of Institutional members are not eligible to take the ATA certification examination unless they are also individual members.
- Proof of nonprofit status is required.
